RULINGS FROM TELEPHONE CONFERENCE:

Plaintiffs and defendants Mamdoh Eltouby and Nada Eltouby Smith. Counsel shall promptly submit a stipulation consenting to consolidation of these cases, as they indicated they chose to do during the telephone conference. Although a schedule for preparing a pretrial order was discussed during the telephone conference, the Court expects that United States District Judge Ross will be issuing a scheduling order that better comports with the Court's scheduling needs and expectations. Accordingly, the conference previously set for March 23 is adjourned, and there will be no conference on May 18, 2017 as contemplated during the telephone conference, absent further application to the Court.
